

APPEALS CASE TO LABOR SECRETARY

Aron Kosakowski, Alien Detained at Halifax, Carries Action to Wilson.

Aron Kosakowski, the alien whom the immigration officers would not permit to enter the country because of physical disability, has appealed his case to the secretary of the department of labor. Kosakowski is a brother of Morris Cohen, shoemaker of this city, residing at 615 Ninth street, who Americanized his cognomen to make it more handy.

The local man has been trying for weeks to get his brother admitted to this country. He was detained at Halifax, N. S., because of financial and physical reasons. His brother here sent him $50 in order that he could pass the test, but it seems that the immigration authorities are not satisfied regarding the health of the applicant and have recommended that he be deported on the ground that he might become a public charge.

Mayor Harry M. Schriver was appealed to and he in turn asked the assistance of Congressman Clyde H. Tavenner of this district. An appeal was taken from the decision of the board of special inquiry and Mayor Schriver this morning received word from the authorities stating that the case had been reopened and additional evidence heard and the opinion of the board was sustained. Notice was given that Kosakowski through his counsel will now appeal to the secretary of the department of labor whose decision will be final.

DIVORCE IS END OF GRAY SCANDAL

Mrs. Henry B. Gray.

Birmingham, Ala., July 21.—Formal announcement that Mrs. Henry B. Gray, the young wife of the lieutenant governor of Alabama under the Comer administration, had been granted a divorce from her husband caused a ripple of excitement all over the south.

The contempt case for which Gray received a six hours' jail sentence at the hands of Recorder Clement Wood was the culmination of a series of startling incidents. Gray was caught, it appears, in a disorderly house, but managed to keep his identity concealed by getting another young man to make bond for him. The matter was about to be passed over as an "ordinary" police court case when Recorder Wood suddenly appeared on the scene with information which, he claimed, showed an effort on the part of Gray to "put one over on him."

Recorder Wood, who was ousted from the bench by the commission recently, claims his action in the Gray matter was one of the primary reasons for his dismissal, as President Exum of the city commission, who was a personal friend of Gray, tried first to get Wood to omit the jail sentence, and, failing in this, to keep the matter out of the papers. Although Chief Bodecker disclaimed any knowledge of an attempt to shield Gray, he, too, made efforts to have the jail sentence omitted and to keep the sensation out of the papers. His prediction at the time was that it would only result in divorce proceedings.

Gray was at one time president of the People's Savings Bank and Trust company of Birmingham. Mrs. Gray is one of the most beautiful women in the state. She has the reputation of being the "best dressed woman in the south." She is wealthy in her own right.

Mrs. Gray is interested in literary pursuits and charitable works, and is a member of several exclusive women's clubs. She inherited not only the good fortune to belong to the "old dynasty," but also one of the large fortunes that many of the old families possess who owned the land upon which the city of Birmingham is built.

Mrs. Gray is fond of travel, having been abroad several times. On the occasion of the inauguration of her husband as lieutenant governor the gown worn by Mrs. Gray, a Paris creation, was one of the handsomest at the ball. Her jewels are very rare and interesting. She is the mother of one son.

Tuesday Miss Emma Kuehl was delightfully surprised by a crowd of young ladies. The affair was in honor of her birthday and she received many beautiful gifts. After a very enjoyable evening was passed a four course luncheon was served.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Miss Margaret Carnaghan, Friday.
